

2/8/16

Assignment A4

CIS 310-01
SHIRCLIFF,AUSTIN HUNTER

Business Rules:

A publisher can have one or many books that it publishes, but a book can have one and only one publisher.

An author can have one or many books that they write, but a book can have one and only one author.

A contract can have one or many authors that they sign, but an author can have one and only one contract that they sign.

A contract can submit with one or many different publishers, but a publisher can deal with one and only one contract.

